PASS

Exceptional Volunteer for 2018. Serving in formal roles such as the PTCO President, PTCO Vice President, Accountability Secretary, and Wolf Run Chair along with informal opportunities such as driving for Immersion and volunteering in the classroom, Sunshine always says “yes” to the needs of the students, staff, and community at Challenge. She serves from her heart, is generous with her time and talents, and contributes positively to the school community. Thank you, Sunshine!

You are invited to join us in celebrating Sunshine at the Exceptional Volunteer Dinner on April 12, 2018 at the Denver Marriott South. Ticket information will be available at a later time.

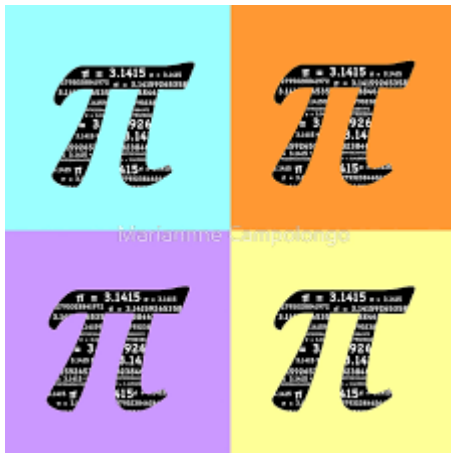

Winter Olympic Lunch

Join us for lunch in the school Cafeteria on February 9th to celebrate the Winter Olympics.

RIPS will be offered as a fruit choice with the purchase of a school lunch!

Pi Day Shirts

We hope you’ll take a look and order one or more of our Challenge School Pi Day t-shirts for our 2018 celebration on March 14th (3.14)! Cost per shirt is $10.31. Please use the following link to place an order directly through Custom Ink and include your child’s name and Connections teacher in the notes section. Orders can be submitted anytime between now and Wednesday, February 21st at 4:00 pm. <https://www.customink.com/g/aha0-00ba-bzxc>

PASS

The Advisory and Accountability Committee is a forum for communication between the administration and the community. Common topics of discussion include state testing results, the school's Unified Improvement Plan (UIP), and staffing and budgeting. This meeting is open to all and we welcome your participation and support. The meeting is February 6th at 5:30 in the Challenge School library.

The goal of PASS is to cultivate partnerships with families of our Black and Latino students. The group is comprised of parents and educators who collaborate to promote the success of all students. The meeting will be on February 6th from 7-8 pm at Challenge School, in the computer lab. All families are welcome and invited to attend!
